

IN HONOR OF CHARLENE WHEELER OF SOUTH BOSTON AND BRAINTREE, MASSACHUSETTS

HON. STEPHEN F. LYNCH

OF MASSACHUSETTS

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, March 18, 2015

Mr. LYNCH. Mr. Speaker, I rise today in honor of Charlene Wheeler, in recognition of her outstanding contributions to the Massachusetts Bay Transportation Authority and to commend her for 32 years of dedicated service to the MBTA and the South Boston community where Charlene was raised.

The daughter of Robert and Mary McGinn, natives of South Boston, MA, Charlene was born on May 5th, 1955 in South Boston and lived all over the neighborhood, from D Street to Middle Street to Dorchester St. until she moved to Braintree, MA with her family in 1991. Charlene attended the John Boyle O'Reilly School, Cardinal Cushing and South Boston High School, graduating in 1973.

Prior to joining the MBTA, Charlene worked a number of jobs in her South Boston community including as a counselor with Jobs for Youth. Additionally, Charlene volunteered her time by teaching Catholic education at St. Brigid's School where her children attended.

In her time with the MBTA, Charlene held a number of positions, starting as Track Walker and progressing to her final position as Train Starter for the Red Line. At times, Charlene was one of the first females to hold positions of authority at the "T" and always did so with the mindset of professionalism and equality. She took pride in each position she held at the MBTA and made endless contributions to the Authority.

Mr. Speaker, Charlene is known for her caring heart, outgoing personality, and her dedication to family, friends and her work. Charlene has had the good fortune to be married to her high school sweetheart, Chuckie Wheeler for 35 years. They are the proud parents of three children and three grandchildren, with a fourth on the way.

Mr. Speaker, it is my distinct honor to take the floor of the House today to join with Charlene Wheeler's family, friends, and contemporaries to thank her for 32 years of remarkable service to the Massachusetts Bay Transportation Authority and the communities of South Boston and Braintree in which she lived and worked.

INTRODUCTION OF FLEXIBILITY FOR WORKING FAMILIES ACT

HON. CAROLYN B. MALONEY

OF NEW YORK

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, March 18, 2015

Mrs. CAROLYN B. MALONEY of New York. Mr. Speaker, across all sectors and industries, flexible work arrangements are a key to meeting the 21st century's diverse workforce needs. Such voluntary arrangements have been shown to boost employee satisfaction and their physical and mental health as well as improve businesses bottom line by helping to retain key talent, reduce absenteeism, and enhance employee productivity.

Flexible workplace policies are a win-win for businesses and workers. To help promote these policies, I am introducing the Flexibility for Working Families Act. This legislation guarantees employees the right to request flexible work arrangements and provides employers with flexibility by encouraging them to review these requests, propose changes, and even deny them if they are not in the best interest of the business. Such voluntary arrangements between employees and employers include changing the time, amount, and/or place that work is conducted.

It is time for our country's workplace policies to reflect the reality of a 21st century economy—where both parents are working and overtime is expected. I urge my colleagues to support the Flexibility for Working Families Act, and I thank Sen. BOB CASEY for his work on this important legislation.

HONORING THE LIFE AND BRAVERY OF JAMES A. CARTER

HON. BILLY LONG

OF MISSOURI

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, March 18, 2015

Mr. LONG. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to honor the life and memory of a very special constituent of mine, James A. Carter.

James Carter was born on January 28, 1921, in Hannibal, Missouri, and passed away on February 22, 2015.

On that infamous day in 1941, James was stationed at the Pearl Harbor military base in Hawaii as a machinist. As you already know, on December 7, 1941, the Japanese Imperial Navy launched a surprise attack on the U.S. Naval Fleet stationed in Pearl Harbor. This heinous act by the Japanese Empire struck a massive blow to our armed forces in the Pacific theater of operations, costing the lives of over 2,400 people.

None could have anticipated the events that occurred that day, but even as fiery death rained down upon servicemen and civilians alike, the brave men and women of Pearl Harbor rose to meet the occasion. On that day, James himself, caring nothing for his own life or safety, swam time and time again through the raging inferno of burning oil which blanketed the surface of the harbor, dragging many back to safety on the shore. James sought no recognition for his actions that day, and never spoke of his valiant actions upon returning to civilian life.

I raise my voice today to honor, in memorial, the life of a brave and humble man. I am deeply honored to recognize James Carter and his service to our nation. May his life be an example to us all.
